

TEA MENU 雲水茗茶

GONG FU CHA AT YUN SHUI TEAHOUSE

Step into the timeless art of Chinese tea culture. We invite you to sit and savor the ritual of Gong Fu Cha (工夫茶)—an intimate, tableside service where tea is poured and steeped multiple times, each steep revealing new depth and character of the tea. Recommended to serve 1-2 people.

MUG OF TEA 5.5

Each day our staff selects a couple of their favorite, seasonal teas to perfectly brew for you. Designed if you are short on time or want to take your tea to go for a wander through the garden.

Teas rotate daily - ask about our selection

TEA SNACK PLATE 15

A harmonious selection of dried longan, jujubes, peanuts tossed in sesame oil and salt, orange slices, and rice crackers — thoughtfully paired to complement the tea's warmth and balance. Sweet, nutty, and citrusy notes enhance the flavors of each sip.

Recommend to share between 1-2 people.

PASTRIES 中式糕點

Pastry from our local friends, traditional Chinese bakery, Mei Sum and Asian inspired gluten free treats from HeyDay.

Yun Shui, 雲水, means Cloud and Water in Chinese. Lan Su Chinese Garden represents a bridge between the cultures of our home city, Portland, Oregon and our Sister City, Suzhou, China. It represents the clouds coming from the East and water coming from the West. Located in the Tower of Cosmic Reflections, Yun Shui is a perfect place to sit and reflect or gather with friends while visiting Lan Su.
